

Retail Competition: The ability of retail electric customers to choose between different electricity supply options from either the local electric utility or from a alternative retail electric supplier. ▼

Deleted: whether to purchase their

Deleted: The amount of competitive retail activity is maximized when all identified barriers to wholesale and retail competition have been eliminated.